Q1: Why go to the EXPO?

A: It's simply a cool event which is a great opportunity to buy and sell anything bike related. Look for bikes, gear, and equipment, and see your riding buddies just in time to tune up your gear and get out on the road.

Q2: Who can sell stuff at the EXPO?

A: Anyone can sell stuff at the swap. Tables are $10.00 each which includes one exhibitor admission. Since this is the first year of the EXPO we are pricing tables and admission to get folks here.

Q3: What can I sell at the EXPO?

A: Most people sell bicycles and related equipment, gear, and accessories but we also have clubs and advocacy groups renting tables as well.

Q4: How big is a table? Can I rent more than one table?

A: The tables are 8' x 2.5' long and yes you can rent as many tables as you need. Please register in advance to ensure space and tables.

Q5: Does the table include any chairs?

A: Yes we have plenty of chairs.

Q6: Can I select where my table is going to be?

A: No but we will try to honor requests as much as possible. Sign up early to help insure any special requests.

Q7: Do I need to sign up early?

A: Yes we highly encourage you to sign up in advance to ensure we have enough tables and adequate space.

Q8: Can I rent a table the day of the swap?

A: Yes we will have extra tables for people to rent the day of the event but to ensure we have enough tables and adequate space we highly encourage registering in advance.

Q9: Do you rent 1/2 half tables?

A: No, to make things simple we are only renting whole tables but you are free to make your own arrangements to share a table with someone. Note table rentals come with admission for two people.

Q10: May I share a table with someone?

A: Yes, but it's up to you to find someone and work out details. Note table rentals come with admission for two people.

Q11: What if I just have a bike or two to sell?

A: The bike corral just might be for you. You can sell your bike at the Bike Corral whether you rent a table or not. You do not need to register ahead of time. The cost to put a bike in the Corral is your entry fee ($3.00) plus $5 per bike.

Q12: What exactly is the Bike Corral?

A: It's a roped off space in the swap for bikes that people want to sell. The area will be monitored and only the owner of a bike may remove the bike from the area. This allows people to sell bike with out renting a table. The Bike Corral registration form will indicate when you will be next to your bike, so potential buyers can talk to you. It is important to note that we don't actually sell your bike. The bike corral just provides a place to display your bike.

Q13: Can I sell other gear at the Bike Corral?

A: The Corral is a place where fairly large items can be sold without renting a table. If you want to sell a burley, tandem, heck even a canoe! This is a place where you can shop at your leisure and have potential buyers come to you at a designated time or to call your cell phone to discuss purchasing your item.

Q14. Can I sell bikes from my table I rent or do they have to be in the bike corral?

A: You can absolutely sell bike from your table. The bike corral is an alternative to renting a table for people that only have a bike to sell.

Q15: Will there be any coffee or food for sale at the EXPO?

A: Absolutely. Good real food and coffee will be available in our EXPO Center kitchen.
